Macbeth

Lady Macbeth

Witches/Weird sisters

Banquo

Macduff

Malcolm

Fair is foul, and foul is fair

If you can look into the seeds of time,
And say which grain will grow, and which will not Speak then to me

Two truths are told
As happy prologues to the swelling act

If it were done when 'tis done, then 'twere well
It were done quickly.

Quotations

I dare do all that may become a man -
Who dares do more is none.

I dreamt last night of the three weird sisters
To you have they showed some truth.

Is this a dagger which I see before me,
The handle toward my hand?

My hands are of your colour - but I shame
To wear a heart so white!

Our fears in Banquo
Stick deep - and in his royalty of nature
Reigns that which would be feared.

Things without all remedy
Should be without regard. What's done is done.

O, full of Scorpions is my mind

Quotations

Is this a dagger which I see before me,
The handle toward my hand?

Avaunt and quit my sight! Let the earth hide thee!

This is the very painting of your fear:
This is the air-drawn dagger which, you said,
Led you to Duncan.

I must also feel it as a man

Each new morn
New widows howl, new orphans cry.

Front to front
Bring thou this fiend of Scotland and myself.

Quotations

Here's the smell of the blood still!

Wash your hands, put on your night-gown. Look not so pale. -
I tell you yet again, Banquo's buried; he cannot come out on's grave.

this dead butcher and his fiend-like queen
