

Activity 1: Use the links below as an introduction to this debate.

NO

1. <https://www.thesun.co.uk/archives/news/823914/we-need-help-first/>

(Halfway down the article (above) is a list of what countries we give to)

UK economics data - <http://www.bbc.co.uk/news/10613201>

YES

1. <http://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-2089794/British-people-feel-pride-away-foreign-aid-says-minister.html> - look at the comments bit at the end.

Does foreign aid actually work?

1. http://www.ted.com/talks/andrew\_mwenda\_takes\_a\_new\_look\_at\_africa.html

Listen from 3 mins into the video and then for about 10mins.

2. <http://www.tutor2u.net/blog/index.php/economics/comments/unit-4-macro-esther-duflo-development-economist/>

Listen from 8 mins 45 seconds.

Activity 2: Analyse the data provided and discuss

1. What forms does aid take?
2. Why in principle might it help?
3. What is likely to go wrong?

Activity 3: 'Addicted to aid'

Use the link below to discuss the issues associated with the concept 'addicted to aid':

<https://vimeo.com/28782787>