

Worksheet 2 – Neoliberal globalisation - True or false

Place a ✓ in the correct column to note whether the facts regarding Neoliberal globalisation are true or false.

	True	False
Governments of nation states see themselves as in economic competition with other countries.
Governments of nation states increase regulation of their economies and increase taxation in order to attract transnational corporations.
The principle goal of nation states' economic policy is high inflation in order to remain competitive with other countries.
Public spending is curtailed in order to maintain high inflation.
Neoliberalism has dominated the global economy since the 1990s.
Neoliberalism claims that economic interdependence has brought about peace and international law and order.		