

This question tests the ability to identify explicit and implicit information and ideas.

Award one mark for each point and/or inference identified by the candidate, to a maximum of five:

- His reputation had spread from Guernica to Lumo (he is well-known)
- He was a defender of causes (he sticks up for others, or his principles)
- He was a wit (he is funny/amusing)
- Some suggest he is too eager to create his own mythology (he is self-important)
- He is the one to watch in strength events (he is very strong/powerful)
- He does not deny the ox story but he plays it down (he is modest/perhaps falsely so)

No mark should be awarded for unabridged quotation of whole sentences.
